You and Your Aura by Joseph Ostrom now available online at www.HolisticLifeChoices.com/Aura

Many of our Fair-goers remember Joseph Ostrom as one of the original readers from our psychic fairs in the 80's.

Joseph was a highly gifted, multi-talented artist: drawing, painting, sculpture, photography, writing and music. He lived and breathed creativity. Years later, people still recall the insights, clarity and power his aura portraits brought into their lives.

In 1985, Joseph wrote You and Your Aura. It was published in 7 languages by Harper Collins and remains a foundational work for those learning about the electro-magnetic field that surrounds living beings.

A few years after Joseph's death, the book went out of print. With so many people now opening to the more subtle energies, the book is now available online and as a CD. You and Your Aura and an audio CD are available online at www.HolisticLifeChoices.com/Aura.

The audio CD, which has not been available to the general public, includes Joseph teaching how to view the aura and a meditation for cleansing the aura, chakras and body.
