POINTS TO PONDER

In a true dialogue, both sides are willing to change. We have to appreciate that truth can be received from outside of – not only within – our own group... We have to believe that by engaging in dialogue with another person, we have the possibility of making a change within ourselves, that we can become deeper. ~ Thich Nhat Hanh, Vietnamese Buddhist monk and author

COURAGE allows you to break free from your coping mechanisms, justifications, rationalizations, well-worn excuses that hold you back simply because you don't want to stir up your life and deal with the "what ifs," the unguaranteed outcomes. Being unconditionally committed to your evolutionary process puts you back on track when you get lazy or indifferent to your practices.

When systems start to unravel, we have a choice. We can struggle to fix the current system OR we can create new alternatives. When enough people 'walk out' of the old systems – and the beliefs that hold it in place – there is a shift."

~Deborah Frieze co-author of Walk Out, Walk On: A Learning Journey into Communities Daring to Live in the Future Now

A small body of determined spirits fired by an unquenchable faith in their mission can alter the course of history.

~Gandhi

Bless others rather than condemn them. Even if only you bless them on their personal journey.

"Stepping into the unknown is a Way of being embraced by God"

~Received from Spirit during meditation

The Heart and the Ocean flow as One. Our bodies and Gaia's body are condensed Light.

~ received from Spirit during meditation

All defense is just a defense, a defending against the parts of ourselves we have yet to embrace & integrate.

~Received from Spirit during meditation

Generosity is a way of telling the subconscious mind:

I already have enough.
